FACTS AND CAUSES OF ACTION

10. On or about December 20, 2017, Clyde Bennett, Jr. was operating a 2013 Cadillac STS in a careful and prudent manner, traveling westbound on Interstate 20 in Gregg County, Texas. Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was driving a 2002 Freightliner truck and towing a trailer owned and/or leased by T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC. Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was traveling westbound on Interstate 20, and following behind Plaintiffs, Defendant Steven G. McCarter and Defendant Walter E. Pearce. Suddenly and without warning, Defendant Ronald Dyes, II failed to control the speed of the 2002 Freightliner and struck the rear of Defendant Steven G. McCarter's vehicle. Defendant Ronald Dyes, II then moved into the left lane and struck the rear of Defendant Walter E. Pearce's vehicle, causing that vehicle to strike the rear of Plaintiffs' vehicle, subjecting Plaintiffs to tremendous force.

11. At the time of the occurrence, Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC.
12. Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was negligent in various acts and omissions, which negligence was the proximate cause of the accident described herein which includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - A. Violating Section 545.062 of Vernon's Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated, Transportation Code, which reads, in pertinent part, as follows:
 - (a) An operator shall, if following another vehicle, maintain an assured clear distance between the two vehicles so that, considering the speed of the vehicles, traffic, and the conditions of the highway, the operator can safely stop without colliding with the preceding vehicle or veering into another vehicle, object, or person on or near the highway.
 - B. Failing to keep a proper lookout;
 - C. Failing to timely apply his brakes;
 - D. Failing to control the vehicle;
 - E. Failing to act and/or respond in a reasonable manner; and
 - F. Failing to control the speed of the vehicle.
13. The foregoing acts of negligence and negligence per se by Ronald Dyes, II, acting singularly or in combination, were a proximate cause of the incident and the resulting damages to Plaintiffs.
14. At the time and on the occasion in question, and immediately prior thereto, Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC committed acts of omission and commission, which collectively and severally constituted negligence and which were a proximate cause of the injuries to and the damages of Plaintiffs.

15. The independent acts of negligence of Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC, include but are not limited to, the following:
 - A. Entrusting the subject truck to an unlicensed, incompetent and/or reckless driver when it knew and/or should have known the driver of the subject truck was unlicensed, incompetent, and/or reckless;
 - B. Hiring and continuing to retain an unsafe, unlicensed, incompetent and/or reckless driver when it knew and/or should have known that the subject driver was unsafe, unlicensed, incompetent and/or reckless;
 - C. Failing to properly train, supervise and/or monitor its driver, Ronald Dyes, II;
 - D. Failing to maintain the vehicle in a reasonably safe or prudent manner; and
 - E. Failing to comply with federal and state laws and regulations concerning drivers and the maintenance or repair of motor vehicles, including, but not limited to, 49 C.F.R. 300-399, Chapter 521.459 of Vernon's Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated, Transportation Code, and Vernon's Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated, Transportation Code Titles 1, 2, and 7.
16. Each of the foregoing acts of negligence was a proximate cause of the incident and the resulting damages to Plaintiffs.
17. Defendant Steven G. McCarter was negligent in various acts and omissions, which negligence was the proximate cause of the accident described herein which includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - A. Violating Section 545.062 of Vernon's Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated, Transportation Code, which reads, in pertinent part, as follows:
 - (a) An operator shall, if following another vehicle, maintain an assured clear distance between the two vehicles so that, considering the speed of the vehicles, traffic, and the conditions of the highway, the operator can safely stop without colliding with the preceding vehicle or veering into another vehicle, object, or person on or near the highway.
 - B. Failing to keep a proper lookout,

- C. Failing to timely apply his brakes,
- D. Failing to control the vehicle,
- E. Failing to act and/or respond in a reasonable manner, and
- F. Failing to control the speed of the vehicle.

18. The foregoing acts of negligence and negligence per se by Steven G. McCarter, acting singularly or in combination, were a proximate cause of the incident and the resulting damages to Plaintiffs.

19. Defendant Walter E. Pearce was negligent in various acts and omissions, which negligence was the proximate cause of the accident described herein which includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- A. Violating Section 545.062 of Vernon's Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated, Transportation Code, which reads, in pertinent part, as follows:
 - (a) An operator shall, if following another vehicle, maintain an assured clear distance between the two vehicles so that, considering the speed of the vehicles, traffic, and the conditions of the highway, the operator can safely stop without colliding with the preceding vehicle or veering into another vehicle, object, or person on or near the highway.
- B. Failing to keep a proper lookout,
- C. Failing to timely apply his brakes,
- D. Failing to control the vehicle,
- E. Failing to act and/or respond in a reasonable manner, and
- F. Failing to control the speed of the vehicle.

20. The foregoing acts of negligence and negligence per se by Walter E. Pearce, acting singularly or in combination, were a proximate cause of the incident and the resulting damages to Plaintiffs.

21. Each of the foregoing acts of negligence was a proximate cause of the collision in question and the injuries and damages of Plaintiffs.

22. Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC is liable for the damages proximately caused to Plaintiffs by the conduct of Defendant Ronald Dyes, II in that Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC was the employer of Defendant Ronald Dyes, II on the date that Defendant Ronald Dyes, II negligently injured Plaintiffs, as alleged above, and Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was acting within the course and scope of that employment when that injury occurred or Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC had the right to control the activities of Ronald Dyes, II.
23. At the time and on the occasion in question, and immediately prior thereto, Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC was guilty of negligent entrustment and knew or should have known that Defendant Ronald Dyes, II was a negligent and reckless driver.
24. Defendant T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC or their agents undertook, either gratuitously or for its own benefit, obligations to train, supervise, direct, instruct, and/or control the performance of workers and/or the operation of equipment or vehicles. T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC knew or should have known that such training, supervision, direction, instruction, control, and/or operation was necessary for Plaintiffs' protection. T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC failed to exercise reasonable care in performing those obligations. Plaintiffs relied on T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC's performance, and T-N-T Trucking of Pioneer Louisiana, LLC's performance increased Plaintiffs' risk of harm.
